

A Frog he would a woo-ing go

Trad.

A Frog he would a - woo - ing go Heigh ho says Ro - ley A frog he would a - woo - ing go whe - ther his mo - ther would let him or no, with a Ro - ley, Po - ley Gam - mon and spi - nach, heigh - ho says An - tho - ny Ro - ley

1. A Frog he would a-woeing go (Heigh-ho says Roley)
A Frog he would a weighing go, whether his mother would let him or no
(With a Roley Poley, Gammon and Spinach, Heigh-ho says Anthony Roley)
2. He saddled and bridled a great black snail (...) And rode between the horns and the tail (...)
3. So off he set with his opera hat (...) And on the way, he met with a rat (...)
4. They rode 'til they came to Mousey Hall (...) And there they did both knock & call (...)
5. "Pray, Mrs Mouse, are you within?" (...) "Oh yes, sir, here I sit and spin" (...)
6. Then Mrs Mouse she did come down (...) All smartly dressed in a russet gown (...)
7. "Pray, Mrs. Mouse, can you give us some beer (...) That froggy and I may have good cheer?" (...)
8. She had not been sitting long to spin (...) When the cat and the kittens came tumbling in (...)
9. The cat she seized Master Rat by the crown (...) The kitten she pulled Miss Mousey down (...)
10. This put Mr Frog in a terrible fright (...) He took up his hat and he said "Good night" (...)
11. As as he was passing over the brook (...) A lily white duck came and gobbled him up (...)
12. So there's an end to one, two three (...) The Rat, the Mouse, and little Froggy (...)